

2018 A LEVEL RESULTS

A Level results in 2018 were again outstanding. The average points per entry was 33.9 with 45% of all A Level entries at A*-B, 73% at A*-C and a 99% overall pass-rate. The independent ALPS indicator of value-added ranks the 2018 A Level results in the top 20% nationally for the fifth year running. Results for students studying technical level and applied general level qualifications were also strong. DfE performance tables will be published later in the autumn term.

The results below are the unvalidated results from August 2018 and before any adjustment for reviews of marking.
