A message from Mr Lally - Uniform expectations

Some students have recently been wearing incorrect skirts, trainers or leggings in school. Please make sure you are following the uniform rules every day. Skirts that are very short, stretchy or made from Lycra, leggings or trainers are not permitted in school.

Staff will be checking uniform and if your uniform is incorrect, your parents/carers will be contacted and you may receive sanctions. This can include detentions, loss of social time or being removed from lessons if you repeatedly refuse to follow expectations.

If a member of staff speaks to you about uniform please make sure the issue is corrected as soon as possible.

If you are unsure about any part of the uniform, please speak to your Year office.

Uniform and equipment check

Your tutor will now do a uniform and equipment check.

If there are any issues, you will be asked to go to the year office.

Please see examples of acceptable uniform in the illustration on the right.

While your tutor is checking uniform, discuss the quote below. Do you agree? Why or why not?

Quote of the week:

“How wonderful it is that nobody needs wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.”

Current Affairs: What is happening in Iran?

Source: Amnesty International, Al Jazeera and BBC

Iran is a country in West Asia.

Iran is a theocracy.

A theocracy is a country that is ruled by religious leaders

This means the Supreme Leader, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, exerts ideological and political control over the country.

He has been in power since 1989.

Nationwide protests started in the capital, Tehran, on 28 December, and quickly spread to other cities across the country. While the protests were initially triggered by the economic crisis, protesters' grievances include broader political repression and they are calling for the downfall of the Islamic Republic and systemic change.

What's happening in Iran? - BBC Newsround

These are the largest protests since the Woman Life Freedom uprising of September-December 2022, when security forces unlawfully killed hundreds of protesters and bystanders and injured thousands of others, with total impunity. The authorities have unleashed the same pattern of repression against these latest protests.

World Religion Day 18th January

World Religion Day is a day dedicated to acknowledging and respecting the various religious traditions and beliefs practiced around the world. It encourages individuals to learn about different religions, engage in interfaith conversations, and work towards a more harmonious and inclusive society.
